

SIMBAD Terms of Use

Document Version: v1.0

Document Date: 14 March 2023

Use of SIMBAD service is free without any registration under ODbL licence. We request that users cite the original paper reference.

Users should make reasonable use of the SIMBAD service, as a courtesy to other users. High cadence querying (above 10 queries/second) might deteriorate the overall quality of service, and will be processed in low priority.

We reserve the right to ban access to any IP address if there is deemed to be misuse, abuse or excessive use of the service from this address.
